Mansfield, the Light-Fingered. Goes Up For One Year-Petit Jurors Discharged For the Term-

About a month ago, burglars broke into

William Mansfield, who was arrested over six months ago for stealing a bag of coin from the Galety saloon, on Main street, was brought in for sentence. His attorney, Mr. Condon, stated that he wished to withdraw the plea of not guilty and enterone of guilty, and the defendant wished to be sentenced at once. Mansfield had already been confined six months, and on that account and the condition of his health, Mr. Condon asked the court to be as lenient of the season occurred last night at Delmonico's. The occasion was a notable of the season occurred last night at Delmonico's the the health was the

Mr. Critchlow requested that the punishment be made as light as possible, and upon these recommendations Judge Zane sentenced the defendant to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. TEN DAYS ALLOWED.

In the case of Hyman Harris vs. Richard Chipman, ten days' additional time was allowed in which to file statement. DEMURRER ARGUED.

It is now very evident that General Miles will not spend time in pow-wowing with the noble reds, but will bring them to time If it takes the whole army to do it. What if it takes the whole army to do it. What strikes more terror in the Indian than any other war missile, is a bombshell and a few of these from the mortars and field pieces will undoubtedly teach the would-be warriors among the Sioux the utter futility of holding out against the troops. It was artillery that put the finishing touch on the Modoc war in 1872, and that same arm of the service may yet have that same to do in the Band Land country.

Two Cenvicted in the Court at Beaver—Their Crime.

Bariow Ferguson went south a few days $\frac{1}{2}$, While absent he enjoyed a little tilt with Judge Anderson, at the sime the latter delivered his infamous decision—denying the rights of citizenship to members of the Mormon church—and prosecuted a couple of men who had stolen 227 sheep. In September 1835, the muttops were first missed and Ferguson gained knowledge that C. E. Harris and J. H. Whitlock knew something of their whereabouts. The men were arrested, and on their preliminary examination enough evidence was adduced to justify their being held to await the action of the grand jury. The grand jury its session at Beaver returned an indictment, and the fellows wore tried at Beaver on Saturday hast, Judge Anderson holding a night session. The
